

LONDALE M. THEUS

Police Officer (Retired) • Law Enforcement Technical Advisor

TECHNICAL ADVISING SERVICES

- Firearms Training / Safety
- Script and Dialogue Consultant
- Realistic Training Scenarios
- High-Risk Building Entry Techniques
- Vehicle Stop Procedures
- S.W.A.T. Tactics and Procedures

EXPERIENCE

Lead Defensive Tactics Instructor, Baltimore County Police Department, Baltimore, MD 2003 - 2006

Contracted by the Baltimore County Police Academy to provide training in defensive tactics program design for basic recruits, in-service training program for sworn personnel, and implementation of curriculum testing, designing a use of force model, conducting a medical review of the defensive tactics program, provide instructor certification training and continuing education for state certified instructors.

Director / Senior Instructor, Krav Maga Worldwide, Inc. Los Angeles, CA 1999 – 2004

Responsible for all management and training activities of the Krav Maga Force Training (Law Enforcement and Military) Division, specifically:

- Course development and marketing which also includes proposal preparation and consulting with agencies about training needs,
- Teaching courses and ensuring curriculum quality control, overseeing Instructor development and continuing education, administering the Regional Coordinator program
- Serving as a consultant and liaison between federal, state, and municipal agencies and funding sources to help secure necessary resources to provide training for their personnel

Police Officer, Santa Monica Police Department, Santa Monica, CA 1993 – 1999

I worked for the city of Santa Monica Police Department in the following capacity: Uniformed Patrol, Bicycle Patrol, Field Training Officer, Crime Impact Team, Undercover assignments, SWAT Team member and Defensive Tactics Instructor.

Police Officer, LA Unified School District, Los Angeles, CA 1988 - 1993

Police Officer, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA 1982 - 1985